

WHO IS BUYING AND SELLING » INSIDER TRADING BY TED DIXON

BUYING AT PREMIER GOLD

Our gold sector sentiment indicator hit an historic peak last November. While insider buying has cooled a bit since the fall, we still see good insider participation in the precious metals area. Today, we take a look at recent buying at Premier Gold Mines Ltd., (yesterday's close $2.57). This junior miner has had a very good run recently, more than doubling from its $1.05 October low.

Over the last 90 days, chief executive officer Ewan Downie bought 196,100 shares. His latest transaction took place on Feb. 5 when he bought 10,000 shares at $1.90. His average reported purchase price over the last three months is $1.64.

» Ted Dixon is CEO of INK Research which provides insider news and knowledge to investors about Canadian markets. INK employees or directors may hold shares in investments profiled. Securities referenced in this profile may have already appeared in recent reports distributed to INK Research clients.

